

SBC's entry into long distance will give the hard-working members of labor unions, and all Californians, more choices, better service, savings and convenience.

SBC has a strong, long-term and positive relationship with it's employees and the labor movement. We urge you to approve SBC's long distance application.